Menus

By Sister Mary

Breakfast—Baked apples, cereal, cream, salmon in cream sauce, toast, corn muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cheese souffle, cabbage and celery salad, brown bread and butter, sandwiches, pineapple delight, milk tea.

Dinner—Southern ham, twice baked sweet potatoes, cauliflower in cream sauce, fresh fruit salad, mortgaged, filled with white sauce and minced carrots, milk, coffee.

There is a charm about the cooking of the south that is most appealing. Indulgences and art in combining flavors makes many of their dishes something to compare with. The southern ham recipe is a nice example of this.

Southern Ham
One center slice ham cut 1 inch thick, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons boiling water, 1 teaspoon sugar, 2 oranges, 2 cups sugar, 1 pound, 1 teaspoon salt, 14 lemon turpentine.

Use a small crock or a small pot in quarters. Wash lemon and peel inside and out. Cut into thin slices. Separate juice from lemon and add to the crock. Add salt and pepper and pour over prepared ham. Parboil ham for fifteen minutes. Drain and wash with cold water. Turn in crock and cook for one hour. Turn out and serve.

Final Battle Ended on Eighteenth Green. Baker Laying His Opponent a Dead Stymie to Get the Half Which Brought Victory—Steady Golf

LACOSTE AGAIN
If there was any doubt before that the reputation of Rene Lacoste was not just about the best in the world, it is now doubly so. This time he thrashed Stanley Thompson in the final of the Jasper tournament. The match was a thriller, and the Frenchman won in the final, 11-9.

JUNIOR ESKS IN FINE WORKOUT

Coach Puts Twenty-Five Junior Through Grind

The Junior Hockey (Canadian) club staged a very successful workout yesterday morning. Coach "Scotty" Brown put twenty-five juniors through a gruelling practice. The team was in excellent shape, and the coach was very pleased with the results. The practice was held at the rink, and the players were very hardworking.

CHANGE HIS STYLE
If Dempsey succeeds in wrestling the heavyweight championship from Tunney in their forthcoming fight, he will have to change his style. Tunney is a much more powerful fighter than Dempsey, and Dempsey will have to use his speed and agility to win.
